

Journal of Contemporary Health Law & Policy (1985-2015)

Volume 25 | Issue 1

Article 2

2008

Introduction

Danielle A. Strait

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarship.law.edu/jchlp>

Recommended Citation

Danielle A. Strait, Introduction, 25 J. Contemp. Health L. & Pol'y i (2009).

Available at: <https://scholarship.law.edu/jchlp/vol25/iss1/2>

This Introduction is brought to you for free and open access by CUA Law Scholarship Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Journal of Contemporary Health Law & Policy (1985-2015) by an authorized editor of CUA Law Scholarship Repository. For more information, please contact edinger@law.edu.

INTRODUCTION

“I can no other answer make, but, thanks, and thanks.”

–William Shakespeare

On behalf of the staff and editors of The Journal of Contemporary Health Law and Policy, past and present, I thank you for sharing in our twenty-fifth anniversary. Since 1984, the Journal has published challenging and exceptional articles from outstanding authors. We are proud to carry on this tradition of excellence.

We are privileged to present works from authors featured in the past, including Reverend Raymond C. O’Brien, Dr. Edmund D. Pellegrino, Raymond B. Marcin and Justice Michael Kirby. Another remarkable author rejoins us, George J. Annas, along with his daughter Catherine L. Annas, herself a past author and alumna of the Journal. We also have the privilege of presenting authors writing for us for the first time, Professor Jonathan Herring and Professor Loane Skene. We have enjoyed working with all of these authors and are certain you will enjoy their contributions to this anniversary year.

We wish to thank our faculty advisor, Sarah Helene Duggin, for her constant advice and assistance. We are also immensely grateful for the lasting sponsorship and commitment from the administration and faculty of The Catholic University of America, Columbus School of Law.

Finally, we are entirely indebted to our founder, advisor and friend, George P. Smith, II. For his enduring support and invaluable guidance, this twenty-fifth year is dedicated to him. It is truly an honor to work with and learn from him during this anniversary year.

DANIELLE A. STRAIT

Editor in Chief