Contributing authors are requested and expected to disclose any financial, economic, or professional interests or affiliations that may have influenced positions taken or advocated in their articles. That he or she has done so is an implied representation by the author.

In recognition of First Amendment interests, the CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY LAW REVIEW does not require authors to use gender-neutral language, nor does it require use of both male and female pronouns. Unless the context indicates otherwise, however, all gender-specific language applies equally to both men and women.

The views expressed herein are to be attributed solely to the signed authors and not to the CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY LAW REVIEW, its editors and staff, the Columbus School of Law, or The Catholic University of America. The LAW REVIEW recognizes the Aims of The Catholic University of America, and strives to uphold those Aims, which acknowledge the importance of "intellectual and academic witness to Christian inspiration" and principles of academic freedom. See The Mission Statement of The Catholic University of America, Announcements (Columbus School of Law, The Catholic University of America), August 1, 2011, at 14.

The CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY LAW REVIEW (ISSN 0008-8390) is published by Catholic University law students four times each year: fall, winter, spring, and summer. Periodicals postage is paid at Washington, D.C. and at additional mailing offices in Hanover, Pennsylvania.

POSTMASTER: Send address changes to the CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY LAW REVIEW, Columbus School of Law, The Catholic University of America, 3600 John McCormack Rd., NE, Washington, D.C. 20064. For changes of address, include name, new address (including ZIP code), and old address.
