The Journal of Contemporary Health Law and Policy is published semi-annually by a student editorial board drawn from the Columbus School of Law of The Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C.

The views expressed herein are to be attributed solely to the signed authors and not The Journal of Contemporary Health Law and Policy, its editors and staff, the Columbus School of Law, or The Catholic University of America, which acknowledge the importance of “the proper intellectual and academic witness to Christian inspiration” and principles of academic freedom. See The Mission Statement of The Catholic University of America, Announcements (The Catholic University of America, Columbus School of Law), Volume 97, 2012, at 14. Contributing authors are requested and expected to disclose any financial, economic, or professional interests or affiliations that may have influenced positions taken or advocated in their articles.

The Journal of Contemporary Health Law and Policy encourages the submission of manuscripts on a wide range of medicolegal and contemporary health law issues. Acceptable subject areas include: topics involving the relationship of the life sciences to the social sciences and humanities; biotechnology and medical science; health law and policy; bioethics; legal, ethical, economic, philosophical, and social aspects of medical practice and the delivery of health care services; nursing; and public and environmental health.

All unsolicited manuscripts are reviewed internally and, as the case warrants, by those members of the Professional Advisory Board whose level of expertise complements the review. Student manuscripts are reviewed by the Editorial Board, with broad overview by the Faculty Advisor. Unsolicited manuscripts cannot be returned unless postage is included. Communications and unsolicited manuscripts should be addressed to: Editor-in-Chief, The Journal of Contemporary Health Law and Policy, The Catholic University of America, Columbus School of Law, 3600 John McCormack Rd., N.E., Washington, D.C. 20064; jchlp@law.edu.

The Journal of Contemporary Health Law and Policy is listed in the Index to Legal Periodicals; LEXIS; Westlaw; Current Index to Legal Periodicals; Current Law Index; the National Library of Medicine’s Index Medicus; MEDLINE Index, Health Planning and Administration Data Base, BIOSIS, and Current Contents/Health Services Administration (CC/HSA); the National Reference Center for Bioethics Library Literature of the Bioethics Information Retrieval Project of the Kennedy Institute of Ethics at Georgetown University; Abstract of Book Reviews in Current Legal Periodicals; and Hospital Literature Index.
