Table of Contents (v.27 no.2)

Editorial Board

Follow this and additional works at: http://scholarship.law.edu/jchlp

Recommended Citation
Editorial Board, Table of Contents (v.27 no.2), 27 J. Contemp. Health L. & Pol'y (2011).
Available at: http://scholarship.law.edu/jchlp/vol27/iss2/1
Articles
An Exercise in Backwards Logic: How Expanding the Family and Medical Leave Act Can Enhance Business Productivity During a Public Health Emergency
   Amy L. Major ................................................................. 251

For Love or Money: An Analysis of the Contractual Regulation of Reproductive Surrogacy
   Abigail Lauren Perdue ................................................... 279

Book Review
George P. Annas, Worst Case Bioethics: Death, Disaster, and Public Health
   Michael Greenberger ..................................................... 314

Developments in the Law: Technology and Social Media in the 21st Century: Solutions for Minimizing the Risk to Children
Commentary
   Mary Graw Leary .......................................................... 325

Crafting Legislation to Prevent Cyberbullying: The Use of Education, Reporting, and Threshold Requirements
   Bethan Noonan ............................................................. 330

An Integrated Response to Sexting: Utilization Of Parents and Schools in Deterrence
   Sarah Theodore ............................................................ 365

Notes
The Preferential Treatment of Employer-Provided Health Care: Time For a Change?
   Benjamin D. Gehlbach ..................................................... 398

Down on the Pharm: The Juvenile Prescription Drug Abuse Epidemic and the Necessity of Holding Parents Criminally Liable for Making Drugs Accessible in Their Homes
   Monica Kim Sham ......................................................... 426