Introduction

Raymond B. Marcin: An Appreciation
George P. Smith, II ............................................................................................................. 212

Articles

The History and Constitutionality of Maryland’s Pregnancy Speech Regulations
Mark L. Rienzi .......................................................................................................................... 223

Learning from History: What the Public Health Response to Syphilis Teaches us about HIV/AIDS
Edmund C. Tramont and Shant S. Boyajian ......................................................................... 253

Notes

Heroin Maintenance Treatment: Its Effectiveness and the Legislative Changes Necessary to Implement it in the U.S.
Jessica G. Katz ......................................................................................................................... 300

The Promise of Personalized Medicine: Regulatory Controls and Tort Influences in the Context of Personalized Risks and Benefits
Randy J. Prebula ...................................................................................................................... 343

Non-Profits Under Fire: The Effects of Minimal Charity Care Requirements Legislation on Not-for-Profit Hospitals
James E. Tyrrell, III ................................................................................................................ 373

Comments

The Effect of Metropolitan Life v. Glenn on ERISA Benefit Denials: Time for the “Treating Physician Rule”
James Goodley ......................................................................................................................... 403

The “Bottom Line”: A Smokescreen for the Reality that Anti-Tobacco Employment Practices are Hazardous to Minority Health and Equality
Jennifer C. Pierotti ................................................................................................................ 441