Articles

Competition and Asymmetric Regulation in Long-Distance Telecommunications: An Assessment of the Evidence
    David L. Kaserman
    John W. Mayo ................................................................. 1

Fostering Corporate Networking in the European Union
    Nicholas J. Nikolopoulos .................................................. 27

Wireless Technologies Creating Competition in the Local Exchange Market: How Will Local Exchange Carriers Compete?
    Lisa M. Warner ................................................................. 51

Essay

Commercial Mobile Radio Carriers Are Entitled to Compensation for Call Termination
    Paul G. Madison ................................................................. 79

Note

“Let Me Represent You!” Florida Bar v. Went For It, Inc.: Supreme Court Succumbs to State Regulation of Lawyer Advertising ........................................ 83

Comments

The General Wireless Communications Service: FCC Spectrum Traffic Cop or Broker? ................................................................. 95

Proposed Government Regulation of Tobacco Advertising Uses Teens to Disguise First Amendment Violations ......................................................... 105

Jamming Ticketmaster: Defining the Relevant Market in the Pearl Jam - Ticketmaster Controversy ......................................................... 119

Cyberpoliticking ......................................................................... 129

Conspectus

Bibliography of Recent Books in Communications Law
    Patrick J. Petit ................................................................. 141

The Telecommunications Act of 1996: A Global Analysis
    Jonathan E. Canis
    Enrico C. Soriano ................................................................. 147