COMMLAW CONSPECTUS
JOURNAL OF COMMUNICATIONS LAW AND POLICY

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Volume</th>
<th>Number</th>
<th>Winter 1997</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>5</td>
<td>1</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Preface
Reed E. Hundt, Chairman, Federal Communications Commission .................................. vii

Articles
- Passion, Politics and the Public Interest: The Perilous Path to a Quantitative Standard in the Regulation of Children's Television Programming
  James J. Popham ............................................................... 1
- The Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act: New Options in Regulatory Relief
  Barry A. Pineles .............................................................. 29

Essay
Internet Calling: FCC Jurisdiction over Internet Telephony
Henry E. Crawford .................................................................. 43

Book Review
Patricia E. Koch .............................................................. 55

Comments
- Reforming the Newspaper Industry: Achieving First Amendment Goals of Diversity Through Structural Regulation
  Bethany M. Burns ............................................................. 61
- Giving the Phoenix Wings: The Deutsche Telekom/France Telecom/Sprint Alliance
  Christopher Boam .............................................................. 73
- E-Mail in the Workplace: Question of Privacy, Property, or Principle?
  Anne L. Lehman .................................................................. 99
- Local Tower Siting Preemption: FCC Radio Frequency Guidelines are Solution for Removing Barriers to PCS Expansion
  Jeneba Jalloh ................................................................. 113
- The Dilemma for Future Communication Technologies: How to Constitutionally Dress the Crypto-Genie
  Jason Kerben .................................................................. 125

Conspectus
- Bibliography .................................................................. 153
- FCC Docket Summaries ...................................................... 159