SYMPOSIUM: THE DEATH PENALTY AND MENTAL ILLNESS

Editor's Preface .......................................................... 1113

Recommendations of the American Bar Association Section of Individual Rights and Responsibilities Task Force on Mental Disability and the Death Penalty ................................................. 1115

Introduction to the Presentations: The Path to an Eighth Amendment Analysis of Mental Illness and Capital Punishment

Richard C. Dieter ........................................................................................................ 1117

Overview of Task Force Proposal on Mental Disability and the Death Penalty

Ronald J. Tabak ........................................................................................................ 1123

Mental Disorder as an Exemption from the Death Penalty: The ABA-IRR Task Force Recommendations

Christopher Slobogin ................................................................................................ 1133

The Injustice of Imposing Death Sentences on People with Severe Mental Illnesses

Ronald S. Honberg .................................................................................................. 1153

Mentally Ill Prisoners on Death Row: Unsolved Puzzles for Courts and Legislatures

Richard J. Bonnie .................................................................................................. 1169

COMMENTS

Taking Back Miranda: How Seibert and Putane Can Keep “Question-First” and “Outside Miranda” Interrogation Tactics in Check

Paul G. Alvarez ........................................................................................................ 1195

Modified Best Interest Standard: How States Against Same-Sex Unions Should Adjudicate Child Custody and Visitation Disputes Between Same-Sex Couples

Leah C. Battaglioli .................................................................................................. 1235

Big Abortion: What the Antiabortion Movement Can Learn from Big Tobacco

Justin D. Heminger .................................................................................................. 1273

JOHN H. FANNING LABOR LAW WRITING COMPETITION WINNER

Caveat Fiduciarius: Unions, Pension Fund Investments, and the Capital-Pre-Recognition Agreement Exchange

Richard Victor Schmidt Luna .................................................................................. 1313