COMMLow CONSPECTUS
JOURNAL OF COMMUNICATIONS LAW AND POLICY

VOLUME 13    NUMBER 1    2004

PREFACE
Commissioner Jonathan S. Adelstein ........................................................... 1

ARTICLES
Extending the Privilege to Litigation Communication Specialists in the Age of Trial of the Media
Steven B. Hantler, Victor E. Schwartz, and Phil S. Goldberg ...................... 7

John Berresford and Wayne Leighton ....................................................... 35

Signaling System Seven: A Case Study in Local Telephone Competition
Shannon M. Heim .................................................................................... 51

Achieving the Goal of Universal Access to Telecommunications Services Globally
Jennifer A. Manner ................................................................................. 85

NOTE
McConnell v. Federal Election Commission: The Supreme Court Rewrites the Book on Campaign Finance Law. Will Political Speech Survive this Most Recent Onslaught?
Brendan T. Holloway .............................................................................. 107

COMMENTS
What the #$%& is Happening on Television? Indecency in Broadcasting
Treasa Chidester ..................................................................................... 135

Principles or Puffery? The Validity of the Cable Industry’s Dual Carriage Arguments and Their Impact on Public Television in the Digital Television Future
Dionne McNeff ....................................................................................... 169

The Tax Man Cometh? An Argument for the Taxation of Online Purchases
Sean P. Nehill ......................................................................................... 193

CONSPECTUS
Major Court Decisions, 2004 ..................................................................... 221

Selected FCC Docket Summaries, 2004...................................................... 227