COMMLAW CONSPECTUS
JOURNAL OF COMMUNICATIONS LAW AND POLICY

VOLUME 13 NUMBER 2 2005

PREFACE

David Irwin ................................................................. 233

THE TELECOMMUNICATIONS ACT OF 1996: A CASE OF REGULATORY OBSOLESCENCE
SYMPOSIUM – HOSTED BY COMMLAW CONSPECTUS, INSTITUTE OF COMMUNICATIONS LAW STUDIES, FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION, AND THE FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS BAR JOURNAL

KEYNOTE ADDRESS
Kathleen Q. Abernathy, Commissioner, Federal Communications Commission .................................................. 235

ARTICLES

Payola, Pundits, and the Press: Weighing the Pros and Cons of FCC Regulation
Clay Calvert ........................................................................................................ 245

The Road to Analog Switch-Off: How the United States Can Turn Off Its Analog Television Service Without Significant Service Disruption
Andrew D. Coitlar .............................................................................................. 271

Constitutional Malfunction: Does the FCC’s Authority to Revoke a Broadcaster’s License Violate the First Amendment?
Matthew A. Klopp ............................................................................................. 309

NOTE

Kelly Maxwell .................................................................................................. 335

COMMENTS

Speaking With One Broadband Voice: The Case for a Unified Circuit Appeals Process After Brand X Internet Services v. FCC
J. Israel Balderas ............................................................................................... 377
Reworking the Emergency Alert System to Meet the Needs of Homeland Security: Overcoming Obstacles to Establish an Effective Public Warning System

Jason Cheek.............................. 435

Voice over Internet Protocol: Ending Uncertainty and Promoting Innovation Through a Regulatory Framework

R. Alex DuFour ............................................. 471

CONSPECTUS

Bibliography of Recent Books in Communications Law

Pat Petit......................................................... 509