2009 Symposium
INTERFERENCE:
WIRELESS INNOVATION, PUBLIC INTEREST, REGULATORY RESPONSE
SYMPOSIUM—HOSTED BY COMMLAW CONSPECTUS AND THE INSTITUTE FOR COMMUNICATIONS LAW STUDIES, IN ASSOCIATION WITH THE FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS BAR ASSOCIATION

KEYNOTE ADDRESS
Meredith Atwell Baker ........................................................................................................ 371

ARTICLES

Lessons Learned from the Spectrum Wars: Views on the United States’ Effort Going
Into and Coming Out of a World Radiocommunication Conference
Donna Coleman Gregg ........................................................................................................ 377

Evolving Broadband Policy: Taking Adaptive Stances to Foster Optimal Internet
Platforms
Richard S. Whitt ........................................................................................................... 417

“The Law is Whatever the Nobles Do”: Undue Process at the FCC
Barbara Esbin and Adam Marcus .................................................................................. 535

ESSAY

The Gore Commission Ten Years Later: Reimagining the Public Interest Standard in an Era of Spectrum Abundance
Gigi Sohn ..................................................................................................................... 657

COMMENTS

Trademark Law and the Repercussions of Virtual Property (IRL)
Melissa Ung .................................................................................................................. 679

The FCC’s Prohibition on Exclusive Service Contracts and Its Weak Constitutional
Grounding
Matthew Peurach ........................................................................................................ 729

Communications Regulation—Ripe for Reform
Kevin Ryan ................................................................................................................ 771
Rumor Has It that Non-Celebrity Gossip Web Site Operators Are Overestimating Their Immunity Under the Communications Decency Act

Matthew Minora

CONSPECTUS

Major Court Decisions, 2009 ................................................................. 869

Selected FCC Docket Summaries, 2009 .............................................. 877