THE JOURNAL OF CONTEMPORARY HEALTH LAW AND POLICY is published annually by a distinguished international professional editorial board, together with a student editorial board drawn from The Columbus School of Law of The Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C.
Membership on the Professional Editorial Board is by invitation only.

One year subscription prices: Sustaining Contributor, $100.00; Patron, $50.00; Patron Subscriber, $25.00; Regular Subscriber, $10.00; Foreign Subscriber, $12.00. Prices for back issues and volumes are available upon request. Second-class postage paid at Washington, D.C., and additional offices Postmaster Lincoln, Nebraska.

THE JOURNAL OF CONTEMPORARY HEALTH LAW AND POLICY encourages the submission of manuscripts on a wide range of medicolegal and contemporary health law issues. Acceptable subject areas include topics involving the relationship of the life sciences to the social sciences and humanities; biotechnology and medical science; health law and policy; legal, ethical, economic, philosophical and social aspects of medical practice and delivery of health care services, bioethics; nursing; as well as public and environmental health. All unsolicited manuscripts are reviewed internally, and as the case warrants, by those members of the Professional Editorial Board whose level of expertise complements the submission. Student manuscripts are reviewed by the Student Editorial Board, with broad overview by the Faculty Editors. Unsolicited manuscripts cannot be returned unless postage is included. Communications and unsolicited manuscripts should be addressed to: Student Editor-in-Chief, THE JOURNAL OF CONTEMPORARY HEALTH LAW AND POLICY, Catholic University of America, Columbus School of Law, Room 115, Leahy Hall, Washington, D.C. 20064; (202) 319-5732.
