1986

Table of Contents (v.36 no.1)

Catholic University Law Review

Follow this and additional works at: http://scholarship.law.edu/lawreview

Recommended Citation
Available at: http://scholarship.law.edu/lawreview/vol36/iss1/1

This Front Matter is brought to you for free and open access by CUA Law Scholarship Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Catholic University Law Review by an authorized administrator of CUA Law Scholarship Repository. For more information, please contact edinger@law.edu.
CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY LAW REVIEW

VOLUME 36  FALL 1986  NUMBER 1

The Pope John XXIII Lecture

Natural Law and Political Choice: The General Justification Defense—Criteria for Political Action and the Duty to Obey the Law
Kent Greenawalt .................................................. 1

Articles

Making Moral Lawyers: A Modest Proposal
Walter H. Bennett, Jr. ............................................ 45

Constitutional Confrontations: Preserving a Prompt and Orderly Means by Which Congress May Enforce Investigative Demands Against Executive Branch Officials
Stanley M. Brand & Sean Connelly ................................ 71

Corporate Secrecy, the Federal Securities Laws, and the Disclosure of Ongoing Negotiations
J. Robert Brown, Jr. .............................................. 93

Comments

The EAJA and the NLRB: Chilling the General Counsel’s Prerogative to Issue Unfair Labor Practice Complaints? .................. 175

The Evolution of a Federal Family Law Policy Under Title IV-A of the Social Security Act—The Aid to Families with Dependent Children Program ....................................................... 197

In Defense of the Government Contractor Defense ................. 219

Notes

Moran v. Burbine: The Decline of Defense Counsel’s “Vital” Role in the Criminal Justice System ..................................... 253

Lockhart v. McCree: Conviction-Proneness and the Constitutionality of Death-Qualified Juries ................................. 287