1982

Table of Contents (v.31 no.3)

Catholic University Law Review

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarship.law.edu/lawreview

Recommended Citation
Available at: https://scholarship.law.edu/lawreview/vol31/iss3/1

This Front Matter is brought to you for free and open access by CUA Law Scholarship Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Catholic University Law Review by an authorized editor of CUA Law Scholarship Repository. For more information, please contact edinger@law.edu.
Articles

Symposium: State and Local Government Issues Before the Supreme Court

Preface
Erwin N. Griswold ............................................ 365

Foreword
Stewart A. Baker & James R. Asperger ...................... 367

The States and the Supreme Court
A.E. Dick Howard ........................................... 375

Making the Most of Pennhurst’s “Clear Statement” Rule
Stewart A. Baker ........................................... 439

Pennhurst as a Source of Defenses for State and Local Government
George D. Brown ............................................ 449

The Problem of Municipal Liability for Zoning and Land-Use
Jonathan B. Sallett ........................................... 465

“Reading” Justice Sandra Day O’Connor
Carl R. Schenker, Jr. ......................................... 487

Afterword
Stewart A. Baker & James A. Asperger ...................... 505

Comment

Medico-Legal Implications of “Orders Not To Resuscitate” ........................................... 515

Notes

Zapata Corp. v. Maldonado: A Middle Ground when Applying the Business Judgment Rule to the Termination of Derivative Suits ........................................... 539
Dames & Moore v. Regan: The Iranian Settlement Agreements, Supreme Court Acquiescence to Broad Presidential Discretion .......................... 565

Holland v. Baltimore & Ohio Railroad: Defining a Landowner’s Duty to Trespassers in the District of Columbia ........................................... 591

Dameron v. Capitol House Associates Limited Partnership: Protective Orders to Provide Rent Collection, Loophole for Landlords? ...................... 615