Books Received

GENERAL

large), organizations and the lawyer-layman competition, with a view toward improvement of services and the system.

TREATISE ON JUSTICE. By Edgar Bodenheimer, Professor of Law, University of California School of Law. New York: Philosophical Library, Inc., 1966. Pp. 314. Cloth: $10.00. Subject: The material values of justice are examined connecting them with certain fundamental existential needs of human beings, as within the capacity of philosophical human endeavors.

CASEBOOKS AND TEXTBOOKS

JURISPRUDENCE: READINGS AND CASES. By Mark R. MacGuigan, Professor of Law, University of Toronto. Toronto: University of Toronto Press, 1966. Pp. xx, 666. Cloth: $20.00. Subject: Five chapters composed of series of cases disposed of by courts in accordance with particular judicial insights, then analytically re-examined by the author.